The aforesaid announcement shall be published in one or more newspapers specified by the securities regulatory authority of the State Council between the 45 to 50 day intervals prior to the meeting date. All holders of A shares shall be deemed as having been notified of the forthcoming shareholders' general meeting once the announcement is published.

For holders of H shares, subject to the compliance with the applicable laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents and the relevant regulatory authorities, the Bank may choose to notify such shareholders of a shareholders' general meeting by publishing the notice on the websites of the Bank and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange instead of delivering the notice by hand or prepaid mail.

Article 88 Once the notice of shareholders' general meeting is issued, the meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled without proper reasons, and proposals contained in the notice shall not be withdrawn. In the event of any postponement or cancellation, the convener shall make an announcement and state the reasons at least 2 working days before the original meeting date.

Section 5 The Holding of Shareholders' General Meetings

Article 89 The Board of Directors and other conveners shall take necessary measures to maintain order at shareholders' general meetings. Behaviors such as disruption of the meeting, provocation of trouble and infringement on the legitimate rights and interests of shareholders shall be prevented and promptly reported to relevant authorities for investigation.

Article 90 All shareholders (including preference shareholders with restored voting rights) whose names appear on the register of shareholders on the shareholding registration date or their proxies shall be entitled to attend and vote at the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents and these Articles.

Shareholders who are entitled to attend and vote at the shareholders' general meeting may attend the meeting in person and shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons (these persons need not be shareholders) as proxies to attend and vote on their behalf. Shareholders shall appoint their proxies in writing. The appointing shareholder or his/her authorised representative (who has been given the authorisation in writing) shall sign the proxy form. If the appointer is a body corporate, the document shall be affixed with its seal or signed by its director or another authorized representative with due written authorization.

A proxy may exercise the following powers at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) the same right of speech as the shareholder at the meeting;
- (2) have authority to demand or join other shareholders in demanding a poll; and
- (3) have the right to vote by a show of hands or on a poll, but when more than one proxy has been appointed, the proxies only have the right to vote on a poll.

If a proxy attends the meeting, he/she shall produce his/her own identification documents, written power of attorney granted by the legal representative of the corporate shareholder and certificate providing proof of the corporate shareholder's shareholding.

Article 92 The power of attorney used by shareholders to appoint proxies to attend the shareholders' general meeting shall contain the following information:

- (4) date of issuance and term of validity; and
- (5) signature (or seal) of the appointing shareholder; if the appointing shareholder is a legal person, the document shall be affixed with the legal person's seal.

The blank proxy form issued by the Board of Directors to the shareholder for the appointment of proxies shall freely allow the shareholder to instruct his/her proxy to vote as he/she sees fit (voting in the affirmative or negative), and to give separate instructions for each resolution that will be voted on at the meeting. The proxy form shall indicate whether the proxy may vote at his/her discretion if no specific instructions have been given by the shareholder.

Article 93 The power of attorney shall be placed at the Bank's domicile or at any other place designated in the notice of the shareholders' general meeting, and at least 24 hours prior to either the convening of the relevant meeting in which the resolutions are to be voted on or the designated voting time. The notarized power of attorney or other authorization documents shall, together with the proxy form authorizing the proxy to vote, be placed at the Bank's domicile or any other place designated in the notice of the shareholders' general meeting.

In the event that the appointing shareholder is a legal person, the shareholder shall be represented at the shareholders' general meeting of the Bank by the legal representative or other persons authorized by the resolution of the Board of Directors or any other decision-making body of such appointing shareholder.

If the shareholder is an authorized clearing house or its agent, the shareholder is entitled to appoint one or more persons it deems suitable to act as its proxy in the shareholders' general meeting or class shareholders' general meeting. If 2 or more persons are appointed as proxies, the power of attorney shall clearly state the number and the class of shares represented by each of the proxies. The proxies so appointed may represent the authorized clearing house or its agent in exercising its rights as if that proxy is a natural person shareholder of the Bank.

Article 94 If the appointing shareholder has passed away, lost his/her ability to act, withdrawn the appointment, withdrawn the authorization of the signed proxy form or has transferred all of his/her shares prior to voting, as long as the Bank has not received any written notice regarding these matters before the commencement of the relevant meeting, the vote cast by the proxy in accordance with the proxy form shall remain valid.

Article 95 The attendance records of the meeting shall be prepared by the Bank. The records shall, amongst other matters, contain the names (or corporate names) of the attendees, their identity card numbers, their residential addresses, the number of voting shares held or represented by them, and the names (or corporate names) of the proxies.

Article 96 The convener and the lawyers engaged by the Bank shall jointly verify the legal eligibility of the shareholders based on the register of shareholders provided by the securities registration and clearing organisation and shall register the names of the shareholders together with the number of shares with voting rights in their possession. Registration of the meeting shall be closed before the convener announces the number of shareholders and their proxies present at the meeting and the total number of voting shares held by them.

A shareholders' general meeting convened by the shareholders shall be chaired and presided over by a representative recommended by the convener.

During the course of a shareholders' general meeting, if the chairman of the meeting violates the procedural rules such that the meeting cannot be continued, the shareholders in the general meeting may elect one person to act as the chairman of the meeting to continue the meeting so long as the proposed chairman has the consent of more than half of the shareholders with voting rights who are present at the meeting.

Meanwhile, the convener shall report to local office of the securities regulatory authority of the State Council and the stock exchange.

Section 6 Voting Procedures and Resolutions of Shareholders' General Meetings

Article 107 A shareholder (including his/her proxy) shall exercise his/her voting rights based on the number of shares with voting rights held. Each share shall have one (1) vote.

When the shareholders' general meeting considers matters that could affect the interests of minority investors, the votes by minority investors shall be counted separately, and the results of such separate vote counting shall be disclosed promptly.

The shares held by the Bank have no voting rights, and that part of the shareholding is not counted towards the total number of shares with voting rights that is held by shareholders attending the meeting.

The Board of Directors, independent directors and shareholders of the Bank who meet the relevant requirements may solicit voting rights from other shareholders. Information including the specific voting intention shall be fully disclosed to the shareholders from whom voting rights are being solicited. Article 108 Related shareholders shall not participate in voting when matters concerning related party transactions are considered at a shareholders' general meeting, and the shares with voting rights represented by the related shareholders shall not be counted into the total number of valid votes. The resolutions adopted at the shareholders' general meeting should fully disclose the voting results by unrelated shareholders.

A related shareholder may excuse himself/herself or the other shareholders or their representatives attending shareholders' general meeting may make such a request.

Article 109 Unless the Bank is under special circumstances such as a crisis, the Bank shall not enter into contracts to entrust the management of all or the important businesses to persons other than the directors, supervisors and members of senior management of the Bank without approval in the form of a special resolution passed in a shareholders' general meeting.

After approval at the shareholders' general meeting, the qualifications of the directors and supervisors shall be verified by the banking regulatory authority of the State Council.

The Board of Directors shall inform the shareholders of the resumes and basic information of candidates for director and supervisor.

Article 111 Except for those under the cumulative voting system, all proposals shall be voted separately at the shareholders' general meeting. If there are a number of proposals related to the same matter, votes shall be cast in the order of which the proposals were presented. Except where there is force majeure or other special circumstances resulting in the adjournment of the shareholders' general meeting or the failure to pass resolutions, no resolutions proposed in the shareholders' general meeting shall be set aside or skipped.

Article 112 The shareholders' general meeting, while considering resolutions, shall not modify such resolutions. Otherwise, the modification shall be deemed as a new resolution, which shall not be voted at the same shareholders' general meeting.

Article 113 The same voting right shall be exercised only by one of the ways of on-site voting, online voting or other means of voting. In case of repeated voting arising from the same voting right, the first vote cast shall prevail.

Apart from proposals regarding the procedure or administration of the shareholders' general meeting for which resolutions may be made by a show of hands and counted by the chairman of the meeting acting in good faith, all other matters shall be decided on by a poll that records the name of the voter.

Article 114 If the matter demanded to be resolved by a poll is the election of the chairman of the shareholders' general meeting or the adjournment of the meeting, a poll shall be taken immediately. The chairman can decide when a poll will be taken if it is demanded for any other matters, the meeting may continue and other matters may be discussed. The results of that poll shall be considered as resolutions passed at the meeting.

Article 115 Before a proposal is put to vote at a shareholders' general meeting, 2 representatives of the shareholders shall be nominated to count the votes and to act as the scrutineers. If a shareholder has an material interest in the matter to be considered, the shareholder and their proxy shall neither count the votes nor act as the scrutineer.

During the voting process of a shareholders' general meeting, the vote count and examination of the poll shall be conducted according to the Hong Kong Listing Rules, and carried out together by lawyers, representatives of shareholders and representatives of supervisors and qualified persons appointed according to the Hong Kong Listing Rules, and the voting outcome shall be announced at the meeting. The voting outcome for each resolution shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

Shareholders of the Bank or their proxies that vote online or by other means shall have the right to check and inspect their voting results through the relevant voting system.

Article 116 Shareholders who are present at the shareholders' general meeting shall adopt one of the following stances when a resolution is put forward for voting: for, against or abstention.

Any votes which are unfilled, erroneously completed, illegible or un-submitted shall be counted as abstentions of the voting rights and such votes shall be counted as "abstained".

On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including his/her proxies) entitled to 2 or more votes need not cast all the votes towards the same stance.

In the event that the same voting rights have been exercised twice, the result of the first vote shall prevail.

Article 117 The on-site shareholders' general meeting shall not conclude earlier than that held online or by other means. For every proposed resolution, the voting circumstances and voting outcome shall be announced by the chairman of the meeting and he/she shall announce whether the resolution has been adopted based on the voting outcome.

Prior to the formal announcement of the voting results, all interested parties involved in the voting at on-site general meeting, online or by other means, including the Bank, the vote counter, the scrutineer, substantial shareholders and online service provider, etc., have an obligation to keep the voting results confidential.

Article 118 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubts as to the voting results of any resolution, he/she may have the votes recounted. If the chairman does not recount the votes and the shareholders or their proxies who have attended the meeting have doubts as to the outcomes announced by the chairman, they may request a vote recount immediately after the announcement of the voting outcome, and the chairman shall have the votes recounted immediately.

If the votes are counted at a shareholders' general meeting, the results shall be recorded into the minutes.

Article 119 Resolutions adopted at the shareholders' general meeting shall be announced in a timely manner. The announcement shall specify the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of shares with voting rights held by them and the proportion relative to the total number of shares with voting rights of the Bank, the voting method, the voting outcome of each proposal and the details of each adopted resolution.

Article 120 The resolution of the shareholders' general meeting shall give a special indication if a resolution is not adopted or the shareholders' general meeting amended a resolution passed at the previous shareholders' general meeting.

Article 121 For resolutions on election of directors or supervisors passed at a shareholders' general meeting, the term of office for the newly elected directors or supervisors shall commence from the date of election at the general meeting. If their qualifications are subject to approval by the regulatory authority, their term of office shall commence from the date of such approval by the regulatory authority.

The shareholders with conflict of interests mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall have the meaning as follows:

- (1) if the Bank has made a repurchase tender offer to all shareholders in the same proportion in accordance with Article 30 of these Articles or has repurchased its own shares through public transaction on a stock exchange, "shareholders with conflicts of interests" shall mean the controlling shareholders defined in Article 317 of these Articles;
- (2) if the Bank has repurchased its shares under an off-market agreement in accordance with Article 30 of these Articles, "shareholders with conflicts of interests" shall mean shareholders who are related with the aforementioned agreement; and

Once this announcement is made, the Bank may convene the meeting for that class of shareholders.

Article 129 The notice of a meeting for a certain class of shareholders only needs to be served on the shareholders entitled to vote at that meeting.

Unless required otherwise by these Articles, the procedures for convening a meeting for a certain class of shareholder shall be the same as the procedures for the shareholders' general meeting to the extent practical, and the provisions in these Articles relating to the procedure to convene a shareholders' general meeting shall apply to the class shareholder meeting.

Article 130 Apart from other classes of shareholders, the shareholders of domestically-listed shares and overseas-listed shares are deemed to be shareholders of different classes.

The term of office of a director shall be calculated from the date of appointment up to the expiration of the term of office of the current session of the Board of Directors.

Where re-election is not carried out promptly after a director's term of office expires, the director shall continue to perform the duties owed by a director before a new director is elected to take up the office, subject to the laws, regulations, normative documents and these Articles.

Article 133 The general procedures for nomination and election of directors are as follows:

- (1) according to the number of persons to be elected and in accordance with these Articles, a list of nominated candidates for directors can be drawn up by the nomination committee of the Board of Directors. Shareholders individually or jointly holding 3% or more of the total issued shares with voting rights of the Bank may also nominate candidates for directors to the Board of Directors.

Such shareholders and their associates shall not nominate candidates for directors and supervisors at the same time; they shall not be entitled to nominate other candidates as supervisors (or directors) if the candidate for director (or supervisor) nominated by them is already undertaking duties of a director (or supervisor) and their term of office has not expired or they have not been replaced. Unless stipulated otherwise by the State, the number of directors nominated by such shareholder and their associates shall not, on principle, exceed the one-third of the total number of directors on the Board of Directors;

- (2) the nomination committee of the Board of Directors shall conduct preliminary verification on the qualifications and eligibility of the candidates for directors, and the names of qualified candidates shall be submitted to the Board of Directors for consideration. After approval by way of resolution from the Board of Directors, written proposals regarding the candidates for directors shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting;

A director shall be deemed incapable of carrying out their duties if they fails to attend 2 consecutive Board meetings either personally or by appointing other directors to attend on their behalf, or attends less than two-thirds of the Board meetings in person within 1 year without justified reason, and the Board of Directors shall make a proposal to the shareholders' general meeting to remove such director.

A director who fails to attend meetings of Board of Directors in person and fails to appoint another director to attend on behalf shall assume the same legal liabilities of Board resolutions.

For the purposes of these Articles, the expression "attending in person" refers to the method of attendance where the relevant participant attends meetings in person, including a director attending a physical meeting in person and attending a non-physical meeting convened by means of adopting written resolutions; and the term "attendance by proxy" refers to the method of attendance where the relevant participant cannot attend a meeting for any reason and appoints in writing another person to attend such meetings on their behalf.

Article 135 A director may resign before the term of office expires. He/she shall submit a written resignation to the Board of Directors. Relevant information shall be disclosed by the Board of Directors within 2 days.

Where the resignation of a director during their term of office affects the Bank's normal operation or causes the number of directors on the Bank's Board of Directors to fall below the minimum quorum, the director shall continue to perform the duties owed by a director before a new director is elected to take up the office, subject to the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and these Articles.

The resignation of a director becomes effective when the resignation is submitted to the Board of Directors, unless the circumstances stated above apply.

Article 136 If the resignation of a director becomes effective or his/her term of office expires; the director shall complete all handover formalities with the Board of Directors. The fiduciary obligations owed to the Bank and shareholders are not discharged for a reasonable period after his/her term of office expires, and his/her obligation of preserving commercial confidentiality subsists after expiry of his/her term of office until such trade secrets becomes public information. The subsisting period of other obligations shall be determined in accordance with the principle of fairness, depending on the duration of the time between the occurrence of the event and the time he/she ceases to be employed by the Bank and the circumstances and conditions under which his/her relationship with the Bank ends.

Article 137 A director shall not represent the Bank or the Board of Directors in their own name, unless otherwise provided in the Articles or legally authorized by the Board of Directors. A director shall announce their views and role in advance when he/she acts in their own name, if there is a possibility that a third party may reasonably believe that the director is representing the Bank or the Board of Directors.

Article 138 A director shall be liable for compensation regarding any losses sustained by the Bank caused by the violation of the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents or these Articles in the performance of their duties.

A director shall be liable for compensation regarding any losses sustained by the Bank caused by their willful dereliction of duty before the conclusion of their term of office.

Chapter 11 Financial Accounting System, Profit Distribution Plans and Audit

Section 1 Financial Accounting System

Article 256 The Bank shall formulate its financial accounting system in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of finance authority under the State Council.

Article 257 The accounting year of the Bank shall be the calendar year, from January 1st and ending on December 31st of the calendar year. The Bank shall prepare an annual financial report at the end of each financial year, which shall be examined by an audit firm in accordance with the laws.

The said annual financial report shall be prepared according to the relevant laws, regulations, rules and regulatory documents.

The Bank shall submit its annual financial report to the securities regulatory authority of the State Council and the stock exchange within 4 months after the end of each financial year, submit its interim financial report to local office of the securities regulatory authority of the State Council and the stock exchange within 2 months after the end of the first 6 months of each financial year, and submit its quarterly financial report to local office of the securities regulatory authority of the State Council and the stock exchange within 1 month after the end of the first 3 months and first 9 months of each financial year.

Where the securities regulatory authorities of the jurisdiction in which the Bank's shares are listed provide otherwise, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 258 The Board of Directors of the Bank shall make available at each annual shareholders' general meeting the financial reports prepared by the Bank in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and regulatory documents. The financial reports of the Bank shall be made available at the Bank 20 days or earlier before the convening of the annual shareholders' general meeting for inspection by shareholders. Each shareholder of the Bank shall be entitled to obtain the financial reports mentioned in this chapter.

Except as otherwise provided in these Articles, the Bank shall, at least 21 days prior to the date of the annual shareholders' general meeting, send the financial accounting reports mentioned above to each shareholder of overseas-listed foreign shares by postage-paid mail, and the addresses of recipients shall follow the addresses set out in the register of shareholders. Where the securities regulatory authorities of the jurisdiction in which the Bank's shares are listed provide otherwise, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 259 The Bank shall not have any books of accounts in addition to its statutory ones. No asset of the Bank may be kept in any account opened in the name of any individual.

Article 260 The Bank shall prepare its financial statements in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations; as well as in accordance with international accounting standards or the accounting standards required by securities regulatory authorities of the jurisdiction in which the Bank's shares are listed. If there are any major differences between the financial statements prepared in accordance with the two accounting standards, such differences shall be stated in the notes to the financial statements. When distributing the after-tax profits for the relevant accounting year, the Bank shall adopt the one with the lower after-tax profits out of the aforesaid two financial statements.

Article 261 The interim results or financial information to be published or disclosed by the Bank shall be prepared in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations, as well as in accordance with international accounting standards or the accounting standards required by the securities regulatory authorities of the jurisdiction in which the Bank's shares are listed.

Article 262 The after-tax profit of the Bank for the year shall be distributed in the following order of priority:

- (1) to make up for the losses of previous years;
- (2) to set aside 10% as statutory reserve fund;
- (3) to set aside general reserve;
- (4) to pay dividends to preference shareholders;
- (5) to set aside discretionary reserve fund; and
- (6) to pay dividends to ordinary shareholders.

No further contribution may be required when the accumulated amount of statutory reserve funds of the Bank reaches 50% of its registered capital. The Bank shall not distribute profits to shareholders before making up losses and setting aside statutory reserve funds and general reserves.

After the Bank has set aside statutory reserve fund and general reserve and paid dividends to preference shareholders from the after-tax profits, the Bank, subject to the approval of the shareholders' general meeting, may make allocation to the discretionary reserve fund from the after-tax profits. The balance of the after-tax profits of the Bank after making up losses, setting aside statutory reserve fund and general reserve, paying dividends to preference shareholders and setting aside discretionary reserve fund may be distributed to the shareholders in pro rata to their shareholding.

In general, no cash dividend shall be paid to shareholders for any year in which the Bank's capital adequacy ratio is lower than the minimum standard required by the regulatory authorities of the PRC. On the premises of ensuring that the capital adequacy ratio meets the regulatory requirements, the Bank may distribute cash dividends if its profits realized in each year, after making up losses, setting aside statutory reserves and general reserve, and paying dividends to preference shareholders according to law, remain positive and distributable.

The payment of dividends on preference shares should be subject to laws, regulations, department rules, relevant provisions of the securities regulatory authorities where the Bank's shares are listed and the preference shares are issued or listed, and these Articles.

Where the shareholders' general meeting distributes profits to shareholders before the Bank's making up losses and setting aside statutory reserve funds and violates the foregoing provisions, the shareholders concerned must return to the Bank the profits distributed in violation of the provisions.

Shares held by the Bank shall not participate in the distribution of profits.

Article 263 The reserve of the Bank shall be used for making up the Bank's losses, expanding the Bank's scale of operation or increasing the capital of the Bank, but capital reserve fund shall not be used for making up the Bank's losses.

When the statutory reserve is converted to capital, the balance of such reserve shall not be less than 25% of the Bank's registered capital before the conversion.

Article 264 The capital reserve of the Bank shall include the following funds:

- (1) premium obtained from the issue of shares in excess of the par value; and
- (2) other revenue to be included in the capital reserve as required by the financial authority of the State Council.

Article 265 After the Bank's shareholders' general meeting has adopted the resolution on the proposal of profit distribution or to convert the capital reserve to increase the share capital, the Board of Directors of the Bank shall, within 2 months after the shareholders' general meeting, implement the resolution as soon as possible.

Article 266 The profit distribution policy for ordinary shareholders of the Bank is set out as below:

- (1) the Bank shall implement consistent and stable profit distribution policy that gives priority to investors' reasonable investment returns with a view to the Bank's sustainable development. The Bank shall give preference to cash dividend distribution on the premise of ensuring sustaining profitability and compliance with regulatory requirements as well as the normal operation and long-term development of the Bank. No profit shall be distributed to ordinary shareholders before the agreed dividends have been fully paid to preference shareholders.
- (2) The details of the profit distribution policy are as follows:
 - (i) Forms and interval of profit distribution: The Bank shall distribute profits on a pro rata basis based on the shareholdings of shareholders, and may make dividend distributions either in cash or shares or in a combination of both. If the Bank reaches the conditions for cash dividends, it shall give preference to profit distribution in the form of cash dividends. The Bank shall, in principle, distribute profits once a year. Where conditions allow, the Bank may distribute interim dividends.
 - (ii) Conditions for and ratio of cash dividend distribution: In general, no cash dividends shall be paid to the shareholders for any year in which the Bank's capital adequacy ratio falls below the minimum standard required by the regulatory authorities of the PRC. Provided that the capital adequacy ratio meets the regulatory requirements, the Bank may pay cash dividends for each of the years with realized profits which, after recovery of losses and withdrawal to the statutory reserve fund, general reserve and payment of dividend to preference shareholders in accordance with applicable laws, remain positive and distributable. The profit to be distributed to ordinary shareholders by the Bank in cash each year shall be no less than 20% of the distributable profits of the Bank for the year. The specific ratio of cash dividend distribution each year shall be set by the Bank in accordance with the requirements of the relevant laws, regulations, regulatory documents and these Articles and based on its business operations, and then shall be considered and approved at the general meetings of the Bank.

- (iii) Conditions for distribution of share dividends by the Bank: Where the operating income of the Bank grows rapidly and the Board of Directors considers that the share price of the Bank does not reflect its share capital scale, the Bank may propose and execute a share dividend distribution proposal in addition to the aforesaid distribution of cash dividends.
- (iv) The Board of Directors of the Bank shall take into full account various factors, including features of the industries where the Bank operates, the stage of its development, its own business model, profitability and whether there are significant capital expenditure arrangements, to distinguish the following situations from each other and put forward differentiated cash dividend policies in accordance with the procedures provided under these Articles:
 - i) if the Bank is at the mature stage of development and has no significant capital expenditure arrangement, the proportion of cash dividends in the distributable profits shall be at least 80% when making profit distribution;
 - ii) if the Bank is at the mature stage of development and has significant capital expenditure arrangements, the proportion of cash dividends in the distributable profits shall be at least 40% when making profit distribution;
 - iii) if the Bank is at the growing stage of development and has significant capital expenditure arrangements, the proportion of cash dividends in the distributable profits shall be at least 20% when making profit distribution;

If it is difficult to distinguish the Bank's stage of development and the Bank has significant capital expenditure arrangements, the profit distribution may be dealt with pursuant to the preceding paragraph.

(3) Decision-making procedures for profit distribution:

- (i) When determining a profit distribution plan, the Board of Directors of the Bank shall seriously study and discuss, among others, the timing, conditions and minimum ratio of cash dividend distribution, the conditions for adjustments and the requirements of the procedures for decision-making. The independent directors shall issue specific opinions thereon. The independent directors may solicit opinions from the minority shareholders, devise a dividend distribution proposal accordingly and submit it directly to the Board of Directors for consideration. Prior to the consideration of the specific cash dividend distribution plan by the shareholders at a general meeting, the Bank shall communicate and exchange ideas with shareholders especially the minority shareholders through multiple channels, attentively obtain the opinions and requests of the minority shareholders and give timely response to the issues that concern them. The Board of Supervisors of the Bank shall supervise the formulation and decision-making by the Board of Directors of the profit distribution plan of the Bank.

- (ii) Where the Bank reaches conditions for cash dividend distribution but has not prepared any cash dividend plan, or the profit to be distributed to ordinary shareholders by the Bank in cash is less than 20% of the distributable profits attributable to ordinary shareholders of the Bank for the year, the Board of Directors shall explain, among others, the specific reasons for not distributing cash dividends, the exact purpose for and the estimated investment return on the retained profits, and submit such arrangements to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration after independent directors have given their opinions thereon before disclosing the matters in the media designated by the Bank. The Bank shall provide access to online voting for shareholders to vote on such matters.
- (4) Explanation of the reasons for not making profit distribution in cash: A profit distribution plan for the year shall be disclosed in the annual report of the Bank. If profits were recorded for the reporting period but the Board of Directors of the Bank has not made any cash profit distribution plan, the reasons for that and the use of the retained profits by the Bank shall be explained in detail in its regular reports and the independent directors shall give independent opinions thereon.
- (5) Adjustment to profit distribution policy: If the production and operation of the Bank are materially affected as a result of war, natural disasters and other force majeure or any change in its external operating environment, or there are any significant changes in its own operating conditions, the Bank may adjust its profit distribution policy. When the Bank makes such adjustment, the Board of Directors shall prepare a written special report containing detailed reasons for such adjustment, which, after being approved by the independent directors, shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for approval by shareholders representing over two-thirds or more of the voting rights present at such meeting. The Bank shall provide access to online voting for shareholders to vote on the relevant resolution. When considering such adjustment at the shareholders' general meeting, the opinions of minority shareholders shall be sufficiently considered.
- (6) In case of capital occupied by a shareholder in violation of regulations, the Bank shall, for the purpose of recovering the occupied capital, deduct the amount of such occupied capital from the cash dividends allocable to such shareholder.
- (7) The Bank shall disclose in detail the formulation and implementation of cash dividend distribution policy in its annual reports, and clarify whether the policy is in compliance with these Articles or the resolutions of general meetings, whether the dividend distribution standards and ratios are explicit enough, whether relevant decision-making procedures and system are tried and true, whether the independent directors have performed their duties and played their full role, whether the minority shareholders have adequate opportunities to voice their opinions and requests, whether the legitimate rights and interests of the minority shareholders are duly protected, etc. Where the Bank makes adjustments or changes to its cash dividend distribution policy, it shall explain in detail as to whether the conditions and procedures for such adjustment or change are transparent and in compliance with regulations.

To distribute dividends in the form of shares, the shareholder's general meeting shall pass a resolution and report to the banking regulatory authority of the State Council for approval.

Article 267 Monies paid in advance of calls on any shares shall carry interest. However, shareholders shall not have any right to receive dividends declared thereafter in relation to any such monies paid in advance.

For dividends not claimed by anyone, the Bank may exercise the right to retrieve such unclaimed dividend under the pre-condition of abiding by relevant PRC laws, administrative regulations and departmental rules, but the right shall only be exercised after the expiration of the applicable limitation period.

The Bank has the right to cease delivering dividend notice to the shareholders of overseas listed shares by mail, but such right can only be exercised after the dividend notice has not been drawn twice consecutively. If a dividend notice fails to reach the expected recipient in the initial mail delivery and is returned, the Bank may exercise the right promptly.

The Bank has the right to sell the shares of the shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares through the methods the Board of Directors deems appropriate and subject to the following conditions:

1. The Bank has distributed dividends on such shares at least 3 times in a period of 12 years and the dividends are not claimed by anyone during that period;
2. After the expiration of the 12-year period, the Bank makes a public announcement in one or more newspapers in the place of listing, stating its intention to sell such shares and notifies the securities regulatory authorities of the jurisdiction in which the Bank's shares are listed.

Where: "Q" denotes the H share voting rights restored from the offshore preference shares held by each offshore preference shareholder; "V" denotes the aggregate value of the offshore preference shares with restored voting rights held by each offshore preference shareholder; "P" denotes the conversion price, and the initial conversion price is decided by the issuance plan for offshore preference shares passed by shareholders' general meeting and denominated in Hong Kong dollars (which shall be converted with reference to the central parity rate of RMB against Hong Kong dollars used by the interbank foreign exchange market as published by the China Foreign Exchange Trade System on the trading day prior to the announcement date of the Board of Directors resolution on the issuance plan for offshore preference shares (rounded up to the nearest 2 decimal places)); and the "conversion exchange rate" refers to the cross rate between Hong Kong dollars and the currency in which the offshore preference shares are denominated based on the RMB central parity rate published by the China Foreign Exchange Trading System on the trading date preceding the date of the announcement of the passing of the Board of Directors' resolution in respect of the issuance plan for offshore preference shares.

Any amount of dividends unpaid to the preference shareholders in full by the Bank will not be accumulated to the following dividend period.

In the event of liquidation of the Bank as a result of dissolution, bankruptcy or other reasons, the remaining assets of the Bank after liquidation in accordance with laws, regulations, departmental rules and paragraph (1) to (5) under Article 299 of these Articles shall be distributed first to the preference shareholders. Preference shareholders will be entitled to an amount equal to the aggregate value of the preference shares then issued and outstanding plus any declared but unpaid dividends for the current period. If there are insufficient remaining assets, the distribution will be made ratably according to the aggregate value of the preference shares held by each offshore preference shareholder as a proportion of the aggregate value of all preference shares of the Bank.
